

Iordan Tsenov, Teodora Ouzounova, Maya Tsenova

UNPUBLISHED LETTERS OF PYOTR VLADIMIROVICH ALABIN

(Summary)

The letters of P. V. Alabin offered here are annotated in detail. Each of them has its accents and is a document of their author's stand on the respective problem or fact of his highly developed sense of responsibility for the Liberation of Bulgaria. Here are some of the subjects touches upon: a) Committee for tracing Bulgarian sent into exile; b) Prof. Marin Drinov, with his knowledge and experience, should leave for the town of Plovdiv and be under the orders of the Imperial Commissioner; c) reproaching Bulgarians who refused to assume administrative functions in the new State and the attitude of the Serbs to it; d) the fate of the historical heritage of National Revival Bulgaria and raising a monument to V. Levski; e) the problem of the refugees after the decisions of the Congress of Berlin; f) the fate of the National Library that was being created; g) premature departure from Bulgaria; h) the Alabin family in Bulgaria – three sons participants in the war, Vasili buried at Yambol, and many others... They are all placed under the common denominator: ALABIN'S LOVE FOR BULGARIA.