

D. Kanavrov

The Use of Aviation Arrows by the Bulgarian Hydroplanes in the First World War

(Summary)

The aim of the present publication is to pay attention to unknown facts about the use of aviation arrows also by the naval aviation, based in a seaplane station on the coast of the Varna lake. Confirmed cases of the use of arrows as untraditional aviation means for strike are described. The facts in it are based on a research of source material, pertaining to the actions of the Bulgarian naval aviation in the First World War.